

SENIOR WILL OF THE CLASS OF 1964-65

I, TOM ALLAN, hereby will and bequeath the right tackle's spot on the football sled to any one crazy enough to take it.

I, KAREN ALLISON, hereby will and bequeath grease paint and late hours to anyone who wants a fabulous time and my old gym suit and racked-up binder to Suye Boss.

I, ED ANDERSON, hereby will and bequeath three pairs of dilapidated, size medium gym shorts with approximately two hundred miles on each, to the "ins" of the out crowd of Burroughs High School's up coming seniors.

I, JULIE ASHCOM, hereby will and bequeath my old gym suit, old paper, pencils and books to Kathy Ashcom.

I, JAMES ASHER, hereby will and bequeath all my brains, teachers, and books to Beverly Hobbs.

I, TEDDYE BATES, hereby will and bequeath my Volkswagen bus and the 25,000 miles the "team" put on it to Janis Little.

I, LINDA BAUER, hereby will and bequeath my typing timed writings to Mike Charlton because he needs them and my laugh to Dorothy Foster because she doesn't need it.

I, PAULETTE BAUER, hereby will and bequeath all the wild parties to Cecile Scheilberg. To that dear, sweet Charlotte Peck and her tribe I will very strong legs(just in case the cops catch them collecting little tidbits from "This and That"). To Gerry Stephens I wish a lot of luck.

I, KAREN BJORKLAND, hereby will and bequeath my four year old P.E. tennis shoes to my sister, Linda, and my Student Council treasurer's books to M'Lou Becker who can try to figure them out.

I, CHARLOTTE BLACKMON, hereby will and bequeath my Dictionary of Modern English Spelling to Mr. Colter who really "needs" it.

I, DONNA BRUNTON, hereby will and bequeath all my Brownie points from Mrs. Wentik's government class to all juniors who can't make it without them.

I, KATHY BYRD, hereby will and bequeath my superior songleading ability to next year's songleaders with the hope that they don't use it as I did and break their wrists.

I, KRIS CARLISLE, hereby will and bequeath my wonderful ability of getting my foot in my mouth to someone who needs more problems.

I, ED CARSON, hereby will and bequeath my blazing speed and good wind sprints in football practice to Edward Kraus.

I, WILLIAM EDWARD CARLSON, hereby will and bequeath my total life savings of 40¢ and my marvelous inherited gift of begging for money to Tom Hibbs.

I, ELEANOR CLEARY, hereby will and bequeath my exceptional aptitude for German to Mr. Deutsch.

I, TOM CLOW, hereby will and bequeath my sense of humor to someone with more discretion.

I, DOUG COOPER, hereby will and bequeath my old trusty(and slightly used) brief case and all the knowledge therein to Smokey Robertson who needs a bigger purse.

I, DIANETHA COTTINGHAM, hereby will and bequeath my locker to my sister, to my brother the parking place of the "green go" (G.T.O.).

I, DAVID COVEY, hereby will and bequeath my sweat suit to anyone who can get hold of it.

I, CAROLE COX, hereby will and bequeath all my empty Clariol and Chloroxide bottles to Nancy Kowalski.

I, KAREN CURL, hereby will and bequeath my old report cards to Wanda Curl because she needs something worth taking home.

I, QUENTIN S. DALTON, hereby will and bequeath my tennis ability, grades, and the blast I had in high school, especially my senior year to a fine girl, Cheryl Burton.

I, LEE DAVIS, hereby will and bequeath my squaw and Matel bow and arrow set to Bob Piasano.

I, KAREN LYNN DAY, hereby will and bequeath Ichabod Crane to next year's student body officers.

I, ROSE MARIE DELEON, hereby will and bequeath my marvelous wit and charming personality to Doris Temple.

I, JIM DESANTO, hereby will and bequeath my parking place at Haystack Mountain to Paul Nelson for future use.

I, BILL DICK, hereby will and bequeath Burroughs High School to the Burroughs faculty, as they deserve it more than anyone else.

I, DIANA DOUGLAS, hereby will and bequeath my megaphone and songleading socks to Dee Warren. I will my fingernails to Lonnlie Kline.

I, RICHARD DROZDOWICZ, hereby will and bequeath my worldly possessions which include a frog, two goldfish, and a left handed monkey to Denice Scarbrough for her loyalty and service.

I, SYDNA ELROD, hereby will and bequeath my sincere thanks and gratitude and my A's in French to all those who have helped me in the past two years and to Nancy Emerson and Joy Skidmore.

I, JENNIFER EWING, hereby will and bequeath all my unusual brain power to Kathy, Smee, and Bobbie Plank, and Daryl so they will be able to get out next year with the class of '66. I also leave my name to the school on the picnic table outside C hall.

I, JUDY EZELL, hereby will and bequeath my ability to play Hiawatha across the desert while under the influence of root beer to Susie Staud.

I, GARY GABARD, hereby will and bequeath my locker that never opens to my little sister, even though she probably won't get it anyway.

I, GREG GARMAN, hereby will and bequeath all my old hyperbolic functions to Tom Hibbs.

I, ED GAUTHIER, hereby will and bequeath my unerring ability to mention in passing at least once the appropriate information sought while suffering a severe case of logorrhea to Tom, Joe, Greg, Richard, and Rettie.

I, PAT GONZALES, hereby will and bequeath my P.E. locker and socks to Margie Goforth. All my old records and stuffed animals go to Kathie Cox.

I, MARILYN GREEN, hereby will and bequeath "Green's Marines" and their happy times to Louie Jones.

I, CAREN GRIFFIN, hereby will and bequeath my folk dance shoes to Gloria Garcia.

I, PATTI GUARDADO, hereby will and bequeath my lucious lips to "The Aunt" (Donna Willis).

I, SCOTT HALL, hereby will and bequeath my pillow for athletic trips to Bill Schaffer.

I, MIKE HANSON, hereby will and bequeath room C-17 and all the fun and exciting moments I've had to the seniors of next year.

I, JIM HEFLIN, hereby will and bequeath my coin purse and money belt to Mr. Charles Humphreys; my understanding and compassionate heart to Mr. Lundstrom; and my genteel contempt for violence to Coach Tysell.

I, ALLAN HENDERSON, hereby will and bequeath all my fine hurdling form to the "FAB".

I, PAT HENNESSEY, hereby will and bequeath my three year old red gym suit that should be white to some underclassman who is looking for trouble.

I, JOE HIBBS, hereby will and bequeath to the person who occupies my seat in period 5 physics, my sunny disposition and ability to appreciate the humor in all situations.

I, DEAN HILL, hereby will and bequeath my football cleats and hard tackling to Johnny Ayres.

I, DAVID HILL, hereby will and bequeath all my talent of being a good high school student to Robby Kruse in hopes he can use it to get along with teachers.

I, LINDA HILLEBRAND, hereby will and bequeath my hall locker(that won't close) to some poor freshman who will have the energy to kick it.

I, DICKIE HILLMAN, hereby will and bequeath my five year pin to one who will soon earn his own, Jack Pierce.

I, LIZ HINZ, hereby will and bequeath all the fun(?) of the four years I've had at Burroughs to Andy Hinz.

I, RICHARD HIRE, hereby will and bequeath my good looks, radiant personality, and above-average "smarts" to the most deserving girl I know, Gail Gaskins.

I, TERRY HOGUE, hereby will and bequeath my dirty gym clothes to Dave Luzinas because he will need them next year.

I, BOB HUTCHINS, hereby will and bequeath all my sick jokes to Mert Davis who wouldn't laugh at them.

I, JOYCE HUFFMAN, hereby will and bequeath all my bad grades and good times to Charles Griffin.

I, BOB IVANCOVICH, hereby will and bequeath my right arm to Duke Martin. Anything's better than the one he has.

I, WRAY JACOBS, hereby will and bequeath my parking lot decal number and my brilliant technique for snowing my teachers to Jim Hammond.

I, GORDIE JOHNSON, hereby will and bequeath whatever is left in my P.E. locker to the unlucky individual who gets it next year.

I, ROB JOHNSON, hereby will and bequeath the Key Club to Jim Hammond and Mrs. Duke to Steve Williams.

I, MARGIE KELLY, hereby will and bequeath all of my old report cards to the most deserving member of "The Fellas" and my bottom locker to the tallest girl in the freshman class.

I, MIKE KINNE, hereby will and bequeath a barrel of monkeys and all my gym clothes to Judy Butler.

I, MICHAEL JOSEPH RICHARD KNOWLES, hereby will and bequeath the fastest pair of football shoes on the gridiron to Len Huckaba.

I, LEONARD KRUSCHINSKY, hereby will and bequeath my government book to Linda Hammon, my smelly tennis shoes to Don Pearl. Margaret Hammon gets the bubble gum on the biology desk.

I, BURNIE LACOMBE, hereby will and bequeath my charm and ability to to catch certain men to Donna Martin.

I, CAROLE LACOMBE, hereby will and bequeath my highly developed big toe muscles to the freshman who inherits my locker--may he respect the dents.

I, BILL LEE, hereby will and bequeath my natural good nature to all the little freshmen because they are going to need it with some of these teachers!!

I, JANICE LEONARD, hereby will and bequeath my ventillated gym suit and open-toed tennies and super co-ordination to Mrs. Gulick (for some desperate freshman).

I, JOHN LICWINKO, hereby will and bequeath my sunglasses to Pam Fojt.

I, PHYLLIS LIDDLE, hereby will and bequeath my blue eyes and natural blond hair to Roxy Lords.

I, TOM LOWE, hereby will and bequeath my enjoyment of the EL BURRO staff to anybody who wants it.

I, MELODIE MALLORY, hereby will and bequeath my "little" brother, Joe, to the under-paid, overworked, but devoted faculty of Burroughs High School.

I, CONRAD MANGAPIT, JR., hereby will and bequeath my purple-green sun glasses and all my fake ties to Clarence.

I, CAROL MARLER, hereby will and bequeath Miss Witt and her love of poetry to Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, to do with as he sees fit.

I, JENEAL MARSH, hereby will and bequeath my old gym suits to Brenda Cox and my uses prom corsage to Belinda Brock hoping she'll have as much fun as I did.

I, ROGER MARTIN, hereby will and bequeath my outstanding grades in government to Jack Pierce.

I, FRANK MASCHOFF, hereby will and bequeath my bike to Coach Bowser.

I, JAMES MCCLELLAN, hereby will and bequeath my bottle of hair straightening solution to Lavinia Hatten.

I, JUDYANN MCKILLOP, hereby will and bequeath my hot temper which I show while typing and my old shaggy gym shoes and suit to any sucker who wants them.

I, SHARON MCLEAN, hereby will and bequeath my ability to mess up the books to next year's scorer.

I, MARY MEYER, hereby will and bequeath one slightly rundown insane assylum to Miss Martin, one new yellow squirt gun to Mr. Maxwell, one dozen slightly used Bronx cheers to Coach Main, gangrene to Mr. Smyser, and one Richard Burton reject to Mr. Whittingham.

I, RICHARD MEYER, hereby will and bequeath all of the fickle underclass girls to any underclass boy who is unlucky enough to be snagged by one.

I, JUDY MONCKTON, hereby will and bequeath my headaches of biology to anyone who takes biology next year.

I, MICHAEL MOODY, hereby will and bequeath all my dirty old track tennis shoes and good times to Sammy Gee. I will my art talent to Greg Gilbert.

I, TOM MOODY, hereby will and bequeath all of my school books and pains and sorrows to four years here at Burroughs to Danny Sapp who will continue it for me.

I, PAT MORRIN, hereby will and bequeath my car to my sister, Betty-- if she ever learns to drive! And to Janis Little I bequeath the senior bench.

I, GLORIA ZAYDEE NAVAS, hereby will and bequeath my 5'1" stature to the '66 basketball team. May they win 'em all!!

I, RICHARD NICHOLS, hereby will and bequeath China Lake to the lizards.

I, SUE NELLIGAN, hereby will and bequeath my great singing ability(?) to next year's pep ~~squad~~ to serenade the rooters on the rooter's buses.

I, CRICKET PARRISH, hereby will and bequeath all the doublemint gum at the bottom of the drinking fountain in C hall to Karen Prest.

I, VALERIE PAYNE, hereby will and bequeath my advanced math books with all the answers included to any person who wants to take a highly challenging class?!

I, BUDDY "BLADE" PHILLIPS, hereby will and bequeath my "bone-crushing" tackling ability to the 1965-66 Burros' varsity defensive backfield and my old and dirty letterman's jacket to Dorthey Foster.

I, PHIL PIFER, hereby will and bequeath my right leg to Len Huckaba.

I, REX RANDOLPH, hereby will and bequeath my high school career to the ages.

I, ROY RANDOLPH, hereby will and bequeath my citizenship grades to Raymond Hayton.

I, MICHAEL R. REALE, hereby will and bequeath my outstanding putting ability to Bob Yount with ~~hops~~ he will benefit from it against Kennedy next year.

I, MAUNETTE RECTOR, hereby will and bequeath all my books and good times with my teachers to Gayle Smith.

I, JANET RICHEY, hereby will and bequeath my senioritis to my baby sister, Joan.

I, FRAN RIGGS, hereby will and bequeath my pom-poms to my sister, Cindy.

I, DONNA RINEHART, hereby will and bequeath my marvelous singing and acting talent to Susan Lipner and my terrific writing ability to next year's BLOCKBUSTER staff in hopes that they make better use of it.

I, JOHN ROSETH, hereby will and bequeath my profile mirror to James Goforth; my consistant charm to John Ayres; and my ~~voluptuous~~ ears to Coach Bowser who enjoyed making so many constructive comments about them.

I, JOHN ROWIN, hereby will and bequeath my Mecca-war head to Louie Jones.

I, GENE PEIRRE SAINT-AMAND, hereby will and bequeath my rabbit shooting ability to Bill and Dick Fagannut and my other shooting ability to Bruce Auld and any interested freshman.

I, SUANNE SCALLIN, hereby will and bequeath my southern accent to Tom Hibbs

I, ARTHUR C. SCHAPER, hereby will and bequeath all my worldly possessions which include four broken pens, three dull knives, two paper clips to the sophmores of next year. They'll need them.

I, NANCY SLATON, hereby will and bequeath my old gym shoes with holes in the toes to Linda Kennicott.

I, DIANE SLAY, hereby will and bequeath my knitting needles to Pat Rizzardini and my height to the incoming freshmeh.

I, STEVE A. SMITH, hereby will and bequeath my elevator shoes, stilts, high heel sneakers, and okie hat(for tallness) to Debbie Russell.

I, WANDA SMITH, hereby will and bequeath all my great ability for getting fabulous grades which comes in a handy instant snow can to Gail Gaskins.

I, DEBBIE SPECIALE, hereby will and bequeath all my government worksheets and tests to "The Fellas" who will need them in order to become a success.

I, PENNIE STAGGS, hereby will and bequeath my filled in senior college math books to all incoming math students and my great debating ability to Roy Shults and John Guth.

I, JOAN STANDIFER, hereby will and bequeath all my typewriting skills and knowledge to Mr. Gilkinson.

I, KENT STERLING, hereby will and bequeath my superior intelligence, and all my cheat sheets to Johnny Ayres.

I, SUSAN STUDER, hereby will and bequeath all my broken pencils and empty ink pens to Judy Studer hoping she will repair them and put them to good use.

I, ROBERT SUTHERLEN, hereby will and bequeath my dirty O.C.C. sweatshirt to Mr. Tysell and my pop-out blank and temper to Kale Lint and VW to Carol.

I, PAUL SWIFT, hereby will and bequeath my natural ability to win friends and influence people, along with my driver-training skills and good looks to Mike Mead, Tittmeyer, and Mike Griffin.

I, CAROL THEIS, hereby will and bequeath four notebooks of biology notes to Jeanne Theis and lots of good luck for the next four years to Kathy Theis.

I, JIMMY THOMAS, hereby will and bequeath all my good looks and brains to Twyla.

I, FRED TOOMBS, hereby will and bequeath my metal flake steering wheel to Dennis Becker because if I didn't he'd steal it.

I, WILLIAM TONGATE, hereby will and bequeath four new tires , all of my bad luck, and Rhoda Howell to Orin Wise.

I, BILL TREADWELL, hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay in high school for four TORTURING years--and pass!!! to Danny Shields.

I, WARREN TURNBAUGH, hereby will and bequeath my excess height and co-ordination to the well deserving Bock brothers.

I, CAROLYN TURNER, hereby will and bequeath my sweaty gym suit and holey tennis shoes to my good looking sister(she takes after me) who will be a freshman next year.

I, TRUDY TURNER, hereby will and bequeath my greasy P.E. locker to Cheryl Ann Allen.

I, SHARLENE VINES, hereby will and bequeath my hard earned suntan to Linda Brown so she won't have to bake as I did.

WE, STANLEY VINES AND RICHARD L'HOMMEDIEU, hereby will and bequeath our little yellow duck who has brought us through many a perilous journey on the access road to Jim Hammond. May he hold up the honorable righteousness due to all ducks.

I, DON WALDRON, hereby will and bequeath my two trips to T.J. to Mike Gallagher and Charlie DePew and the little blue Chevy car to Linda.

I, BRUCE WILSON, hereby will and bequeath my place in the lunch line, gum on the senior bench, and answers to quizes, to that ten per cent of the future senior class.

I, FLORENCE WILSON, hereby will and bequeath my gym suit to the Salvation Army.

I, EDREA WINKLE, hereby will and bequeath my height to the shortest freshman at Burroughs.

I, ORIN WISE, hereby will and bequeath my loquaciousness, capidity, profundity, and my free-lance cowardice to any idiot/fool/jerk who would want it.

I, KAREN WORTH, hereby will and bequeath my bottom locker to a tall freshman.

I, RON ZILLS, hereby will and bequeath my stupendous height to Bill Schaffer, my grubby football gear to Mike Charlon and my hairy legs to Mary Glaviano.