

SENIORS PLAN FOR FUTURE

TOM ALLAN's plans are to attend the University of California at Berkeley. His major is undecided as of now. He will probably go into either physics or political science.

KAREN ALLISON is going to C.L.C. next year and is going to major in extracurricular activities.

JULIE ASHCOM plans to get a summer job and later go to Bakersfield Junior College and major in nursing.

JAMES ASHER plans to join the U.S. Air Force as a life time job.

JAMES AXERS is going to "Harvard" and become a "lawyer", and play football and basketball.

TANDIE BARNETT is planning to go to Bakersfield Junior College and then transfer to Fresno State where she will major in P.E.

TADDYE BATES plans to go to Fresno State College to major in economics (or how to get rich quick).

LINDA BAUER will attend Fresno State College and major in social welfare and perhaps a co-major in home economics.

PAULETTE BAUER will travel to the San Diego Zoo where she plans to train monkeys.

KAREN BJORKLUND plans to go to Stanford University next fall where she will be majoring in international relations and fun!

DONNA BRUNTON hopes to become a teacher of history when she completes her education at San Francisco State.

KATHY BIRD plans to attend Pasadena Jr. College for one year, then move to Virginia, and someday teach somebody something.

KRIS CARLISLE plans to attend the University of California at Berkeley and major in psychology or sociology. She plans to continue her education in social welfare in graduate school so she can receive a social working certificate. Kris would like to work with juvenile delinquents and their families.

WILLIAM EDWARD CARSON plans to go to junior college or the Los Angeles Trade School and get a part time job.

JAMES CARR plans to spend another half year at this towering institution of education.

ED CARSON is planning to attend Bakersfield Junior College and major in criminology. From Bakersfield he will transfer to Fresno State and continue that field.

ELEANOR CLEARY plans to go to the University of California at Davis where she will major in foreign languages.

DIANETHA COTTINGHAM will be a housewife and maybe get a job or go to college.

DAVID COVEY's future plans are to get a summer job and then go into the service.

CAROLE COX plans to go to New York in July to meet Pam Tiemann who has been in France since mid-term graduation. She's going cross country with Trudi Howell in a little Volkswagon.

KAREN CURL will work this summer and then travel to the East where she will attend a business school.

QUENTIN DALTON is going to go to college at Bakersfield. After two years at Bakersfield he will transfer to Cal Poly where he will major in engineering. He plans to do graduate work for a M.S. degree at the University of California at Riverside.

LEE DAVIS is planning to attend San Bernadino Valley College next fall.

SONNY DAVIS will work during the summer and then attend Bakersfield in September.

KAREN DAY will attend Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo and major in home economics. She hopes to teach that subject at a high school level.

JIM DESANTO plans to attend Bakersfield College for two years.

BILL DICK plans to open up a fashionable restaurant in Tijuana.

DEE DOUGLAS will be attending the University of Redlands for the next four years and would like to do some writing. Perhaps write a book or write for a magazine.

RICHARD DRÓZDOWICZ plans to go to Brooklyn College and take a course in criminology and hopes someday to work for the F.B.I. Division for the U.S. government as an F.B.I. agent.

SYDNA ELROD plans to attend Brevard Junior College near Cape Kennedy, Florida. On receiving her bachelor's degree, she intends to enter the social world.

JENNIFER EWING plans to go on a little trip of freedom, then start a four month course at the Dental Nurses College of California at San Francisco, to be a dental assistant.

JUDY EZELL is going to attend Lyle's Beauty College in Bakersfield.

GARY GABARD will somehow make his first million this summer. With it he will organize the greatest rock and roll band the world has ever seen, and by the time he's 65, he'll be ready to retire and get married.

ED GAUTHIER plans to go to San Fernando Valley State College for four years and major in history and classics. He will do graduate work at U.C.B. or U.C.L.A.

PAT GONZALES will go to Bakersfield for summer school then either continue there or go to Chapman College or San Francisco University.

MARILYN GREEN plans to go to Pepperdine College and major in sociology.

CAREN GRIFFIN plans to major in music and minor in history and secondary teaching at San Diego State College next fall. After teaching a few years, she plans to go to U.C.L.A. to get her library science certificate.

PATTI GUARDADO hopes to attend Lyle's Beautician School in Bakersfield.

SCOTT HALL is planning to attend the University of Redlands, and then Medical School and U.C.L.A.

MIKE HANSON plans to attend Bakersfield College for two years and then he plans to further his education at another college.

JIM HEFLIN plans to attend the University of California at San Diego (Scripps Institute of Oceanography and Revelle College). His major is still undecided but will probably be physics, pre-law or maybe pre-med.

ALLAN HENDERSON plans to get a summer job, either as a seasonal fireman in Nine Mile Canyon or an engineer's aid on highway construction. After summer he will attend Porterville Junior College and major in forestry.

JOE HIBBS plans to collect the good living the world owes him and to do it honestly if he can--but do it!

DAVID HILL plans to go to the L.D.S. Church College of Hawaii with his brother, Dean, and study in the field of math.

DEAN HILL plans to go to the L.D.S. Church College of Hawaii where he will study in the field of psychology.

DICKIE HILLMAN is going to Orange Coast College for two years then transfer to another college.

RICHARD HIRE plans to attend Bakersfield College next year and pursue a major in English. This is in preparation for a career as a high school teacher.

LIZ HINZ plans to go to San Diego State College. After she gets her B.A. in liberal arts, she will go to the airline stewardess school in Dallas, Texas.

JERRY HIXSON plans to work on a ranch in Montana for awhile and then go to a technical school.

TERRY HOGUE is planning to go to U.C.L.A. and play basketball with the best college team in the country.

JOYCE HUFFMAN is married and intends to have a wonderful family.

BOB HUTCHINS plans to go to California Baptist College in Riverside and possibly become a teacher and go into politics.

BOB IVANCOVICH plans to go to college at Bakersfield and major in math.

WRAY JACOBS plans to go to Bakersfield College and to pick lemons in Santa Ana this summer.

GORDON JOHNSON plans to go to Bakersfield College for two years and play football, then on to a major college for more football and a degree in forestry.

ROB JOHNSON is planning to attend Claremont Men's College next fall on a state scholarship. His major will probably be liberal arts.

MARGIE KELLY is planning to attend Immaculate Heart College in Los Angeles and "live it up" (?).

MIKE KENNE plans to go to Yale and become a chemist. Sure, Mike!!

MIKE KNOWLES will go to Bakersfield College and after two years he plans to attend the California Highway Patrol Academy at Sacramento.

SHELAN KOKOSENSKI will be going to Long Beach State College.

BURNIE LACOMBE plans to go to beautician school and then get married.

CAROLE LACOMBE plans to attend the College of Notre Dame on a football scholarship!

BILL LEE is going to take things as they come and do with them what he can.

JANICE LEONARD's plans are to go to Highland School of Nursing in Oakland and study nursing.

RICHARD L'HOMMEDIEU plans to attend West Coast Trade School and major in IBM key punch.

PHYLLIS LIDDLE plans to get a job as a telephone operator and live in Huntington Beach.

JOHN LICWINKO is going to the University of California at Davis and become an electrical engineer. He plans to join the PGA afterwards and win the Masters in 1970. At the age of 30, he will retire and write about his experiences. Lots of Luck, John!

THOMAS LOWE hopes to attend the Desert Division of the Bakersfield College, here at Burroughs. Later he plans to enter the service.

MELODIE MALLORY plans to attend the University of California at Santa Barbara summer session and go back in the fall to major in biology-psychology.

CONRADO MANGAPIT is planning to attend U.C.L.A. and major in electro-mechanical engineering or marine engineering.

CAROL MARLER is moving to Oakland to be with her husband, Ron.

JENEAL MARSH plans to get a job and live in Bishop until she gets married.

ROGER MARTIN has high hopes of becoming a biochemist while studying at Berkley!!

FRANK MASCHOFF plans to go to junior college or join the service.

JAMES MCCLELLAN has plans to attend beauty college in San Diego.

JUDY MCKILLOP plans to attend Fredrico's Beauty College and get married.

SHARON MCLEAN is attending Bakersfield Junior College next year. She plans to transfer to another college after two years and major in some phase of the business field.

MARY MEYER is planning to go to Monterey Peninsula College. After college she plans to teach art or English at either the high school or junior high level.

RICHARD MEYER plans to join the U.S. Air Force in June. From there he will go to the Airman Education Commission for college. After receiving his commission as 2nd Lt., he will be enrolled in pilots' training.

JUDY MONCKTON will attend Bakersfield College for two years and then go to Long Beach State. After college, she plans to teach either at a high school or a junior high school.

TOM MOODY plans to continue wood working in a trade school and eventually become a professional custom cabinet maker.

PAT MORRIN plans to attend the University of California at Davis and major in psychology.

GLORIA NAVAS is planning to become a lawyer and then apply for a job in the United Nations. She will probably study in the University of Costa Rica, and perhaps apply for another scholarship to come to the U.S. again to visit China Lake, and obtain her doctor's degree.

SUE NELLIGAN's plans are to go to Fresno State College where she'll major in sociology, after which she'll reform the WHOLE world, or at least the Fresno State faculty.

RICHARD NICHOLS really doesn't know exactly what he wants to do. However, he has a secret ambition of being a beach bum at the University of Hawaii in Honolulu.

CRICKET PARRISH will attend the desert division of Bakersfield College and she plans to eventually become a medical technician.

VALERIE PAYNE plans to attend Mount St. Mary's College in Brentwood, California and major in nursing and minor in psychology.

BUDDY "BLADE" PHILLIPS plans to earn money(among other things) this summer to finance his Bakersfield days.

PHIL PIFER plans to go to Taft Junior College for two years then transfer to Oregon State University.

GLENN PRITCHARD is enrolled at the University of California at Santa Barbara. His future plans include a possible vocation in law or political science. Later, marriage and lots of money.

REX RANDOLPH will attend college for four years after which he plans to tour the world and become filthy rich and completely contented. He plans to have a position rather than a job. Good luck, Rex!

MIKE REALE's main ambition is to help those who "ain't got it so good", this includes himself. He really wants to see life as it is, the bad parts as well as the good. After this he hopes to be responsible enough to care for others who might come along.

MAUNETTE RECTOR plans to go to L.V.N. for one year and then get married and have a job of being a good wife and mother.

DONNA REED is going to be married June 19 to Ray Lawrence. After they are married they will live in Port Hueneme.

JANET RICHEY plans to go to either Long Beach State College or San Fernando Valley State College in September.

FRAN RIGGS will enter the University of California in Riverside. She plans to study in the field of English and journalism in order to become a teacher. This summer she is going to be a receptionist at Hubbard Printing.

DONNA RINEHART plans to attend Bakersfield Junior College for two years and then turn to newspaper writing as a career. Maybe get married?

JOHN ROSETH is planning to go to Bakersfield College with sights set on a major in social welfare. He plans to apply this to the field of social work in later life.

JOHN ROWIN's plans are to get his Mecca-warhead back.

ROY SASSELLI plans to attend the University of California at Santa Barbara or Cal Poly.

AUTHUR SCHAPER plans to go to Long Beach City College after he finishes his C.B. obligation.

NANCY SLATON will attend Pasadena College where she plans to become a nurse.

DIANE SLAY plans to continue working until the end of the summer, then take a four month course in dental assistance, after which she is getting married.

STEVE SMITH plans to attend college to study Mill Carpentry at Long Beach City College.

WALLY SMITH has a hard task ahead--to stay out of trouble for at least fifty years!

WANDA SMITH plans to attend Fresno State College to get her registered nurse degree and a bachelor of science degree. After this she plans to join the Women's Air Force and nurse all of those "poor, helpless, big, strong, muscular Air Force men" both here and over-seas.

DEBBIE SPECIALE plans to go to San Mateo Junior College.

PENNIE STAGGS will attend the University of California at San Diego. She will major in mathematics. She is presently thinking of becoming an applied mathematician working with computers.

GENE ST. AMAND plans to live a little and travel a lot.

JOAN STANDIFER is going to the State University of Iowa and become a registered nurse.

KENT STERLING plans to attend the College of the Sequoias or Bakersfield Junior College after which he will transfer to Fresno State to major in accounting or economics.

GERRY STEPHENS is planning to be an airline stewardess.

BILL STOKES plans to go to the Bakersfield College and generalize in his subject plans.

HARRIETT STONE may attend Bakersfield College.

SUSAN STUDER is going to Fresno City College and then go on to Illinois to the United Airlines School for stewardesses.

ROBERT SUTHERLEN plans to go to Orange Coast College, and then to a four year college.

PAUL SWIFT is going to attend the University of Redlands.

CLAUDE TAVERNIER is planning to serve with the U.S.M.C. after which he will return to China Lake to restore antique cars and build one of his own.

CAROL THIES plans to attend the University of California in Santa Barbara, get her teaching credential, and either join the Peace Corps or teach high school English.

JIMMY THOMAS will be attending Bakersfield Junior College.

WILLIAM TONGATE plans to attend Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo and major in aeronautical engineering. After that he is going to work for the Civil Service.

FRED TOOMBS has high hopes of getting through two years of college and then go into the service.

TRUDY TURNER plans to go to Bakersfield College.

CAROLYN TURNER will be moving to Los Angeles or Orange County and begin college the second semester of next year.

SHARLENE VINES will attend Fullerton College and after two years she hopes to transfer to Long Beach State College and get her B.A. and teaching credential. After college she plans to work for American Airlines as an airline stewardess.

DON WALDRON plans to be surfing ten years from now at Balboa Island with Bob Sutherlen.

DEE WARNER plans to attend San Diego State College.

BRUCE WILSON JR. plans to attend Cal Poly and major in aeronautical engineering. Later plans to work for a large company or the U.S. Government.

FLORENCE WILSON will go to Bakersfield College for two years and then study home economics at Brigham Young University. She hopes to get some unusual job, such as the United Nations Technical Aid to Underdeveloped Countries.

ORIN WISE is going to stay in Priestly Hall at Berkeley and major in political science. After that, either law or the foreign service.

KAREN WORTH is planning to go to Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo to major in biology.

PAM YELLAND plans to leave Ridgecrest as soon as possible and move to Long Beach where she will attend college in the fall.

RONNY ZILLS plans to work on a road construction job this summer and attend Harvard next fall. Afterwards he plans to complete work in nuclear physics and do graduate work in that field. After college Ronny plans to tour Europe. You've certainly got high hopes, Ronny!!